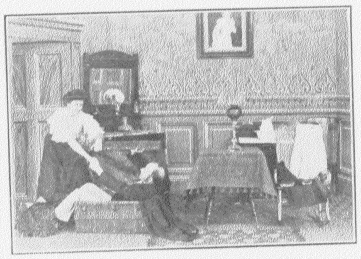
HUBBY'S VACATION.

LENGTH, 660 FEET. COPYRIGHTED 1908.

Hubby takes a vacation. He promised to write to his wife every day. So he does. When in company of friends, he writes her a letter saying he is lonely. When wineing and dining with members of the ballad, he writes to his wife he is longing for her. Darling little wife is sorry for poor Hubby and decides to visit him and relieve his dreary life. But Oh, what a difference in the morning when she finds Hubby in the Police Station locked up for having had too much fun. Hubby is now on his way home. On his next vacation wifey will go with him.

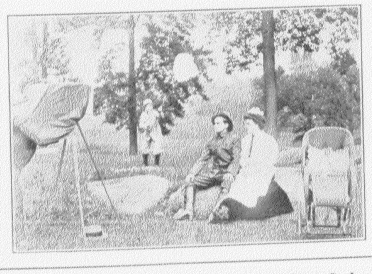


NO. 119

ALL ON ACCOUNT OF A BUTTERFLY

LENGTH 200 FEET COPYRIGHTED 1908

The Professor is chasing Butterflies. He is so enrapt in his work that he does not see where he is going. This brings him in many embarassing positions Things look dangerous for a while but all ends well. A very funny short comic subject.



NO. 149

S. LUBIN

MANUFACTURER OF

Life Motion Picture Machines, Films, Slides and Stereopticons.

LUBIN BUILDING, 926-928 Market St., Phila., Pa.